

Google and the Government of China

- Map out Google's interests and positions. What were its alternatives and how good were they?
- Map out China's interests and positions. What were its alternatives and how good were they?
- What were the two parties most concerned with during their negotiations? How was this evident?
- What ethical dilemmas do you foresee for Google? For China? Is there any way to resolve them?
- How would you characterize the agreement? Was it a win-win, a win-lose, a compromise. Why?
